

The University of Alabama Google Maps and Parking:

Address: Use UA School of Music or Moody Music Building in Google Maps or GPS

From Paul Houghtaling: "The physical address is 810 Second Avenue, but every now and then the actual address takes them to another Second Avenue across the river. UA School of Music or Moody Music Building is the best way to go."

Parking:

The University of Alabama is on Spring Break, so parking is free and available to use.

From Paul: "There is a parking lot and a large parking deck across the street, on Second Avenue, but there is also parking "behind" the building, in a couple of lots marked Faculty/Staff, accessed via 4th Avenue off of University Blvd. There is also street parking along 5th Avenue, also access via 4th Avenue off of the main drag, University Blvd."
